

Towards the One,
The Perfection of Love, Harmony and Beauty,
The Only Being, United with all the Illuminated Souls
Who form the Embodiment of the Master,
The Spirit of Guidance.

Towards the One
(The door opener to the prayer and to our understanding)

There is only One Being; and that One Being manifests in many names and forms.

The Perfection of Love, Harmony and Beauty
(An invocation of all that is Love, Harmony, and Beauty)

There is a perfection to be found in the feeling and expression of love. This is not sentimental love, nor a singularly affectionate love, although it can arise there too! This love is a Universal Love. It is a love that springs forth from an open, giving heart that asks nothing in return. All the great teachers throughout history were wellsprings of great love. Such a Love gives rise of the impulse towards Harmony. Harmony wherever found gives rise to Beauty.

The Only Being
(An affirmation)

There is The One and Only Being that expresses itself and manifests in many names and forms. We affirm that these names and forms are known to us as the Illuminated Souls.

United with all the Illuminated Souls
(An affirmation and a humble request to help us open in devotion and deepen in realization)

We affirm the unified existence of the Only Being and the manifold expression of this Only Being through all the Illuminated Souls. We request to find union in and with all the Illuminated Souls, which are both known and unknown to us.

Who form the Embodiment of the Master
(Seeking/acknowledging realization)

We request to see, know, feel, experience, and become consecrated in this Unity. We come to realize that all the Masters, Saints, and Prophets are this embodiment beyond all name, religion, form, time, and space. We want to unite, realize, and become this embodiment.

The Spirit of Guidance
(The culmination and affirmation of understanding)

We realize that the Spirit of Guidance is constantly “speaking” to us. It is up to us to open and attune to this Spirit and open the ear of the heart to receive this Guidance. Surely it will come as a Blessing from Above to the one who listens, watches, and prays.
